What a wild year we had in 2022 - we finally got back to hosting live music nearly every night, with more than 350 performances shows last year, and we launched the 1st Annual Annapolis Songwriters Festival! (woohoo!) There's nothing better than going to a show, singing along, and creating core memories with friends, family, and the performer. We wouldn't be able to continue to bring such outstanding performers to Annapolis if it wasn't for the fans. Don't forget to cast your vote so that your favorite performers from the past year at Rams Head wins!
